We consistently ensure that our products, including all components and materials used in their manufacture, do not contain Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) as identified by the European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) above the threshold of 0.1% weight by weight (w/w).

We conduct regular reviews and updates of our product range to maintain compliance with the REACH regulation. This includes but is not limited to stringent supplier assessments, and maintaining up-to-date knowledge of changes in the SVHC list.
